PRESENTS
"KID COCOA"
OCTOBER 26, 1973

NATIONAL ASSEMBLIES

Student Council brought five National Assemblies to Priest River High. On October 19 a trio of comedians presented "Laughter, American Style." In January a demonstration of yoga was given, and in February an assembly about ESP was received warmly. A musical duo was scheduled for April, and a vocalist in May. Students found the assemblies to be both educational and entertaining.

"BE HAPPY? GO WACKY!"

Seniors presented a fine play this year, despite numerous problems. Under the direction of Rush Balison, the play cast spent many long hours practicing for their performance. Most of those appearing in the play had previously been in a junior high or junior class plays. The result of the many hours of rehearsal was first displayed in a nighttime showing for parents on December 13th. High school students saw the play, "Be Happy, Go Wacky!" on the next day. This year's play was the major money-making project for the senior class.

FIVE GIRLS CHOSEN TO ALL-STATE

Front: Margaret Skudler, Marjorie Skudler, Mariel Skudler. Back: Judy Stephens, Melody Brock. These students were chosen to be a part of the Idaho All-State Band and Choir. While Judy and Melody play in the band, Priest River had the only triplets in the All-State Choir. The five joined hundreds of other music students for a week of rehearsals. Highlight was a Grand Concert presented on March 16.

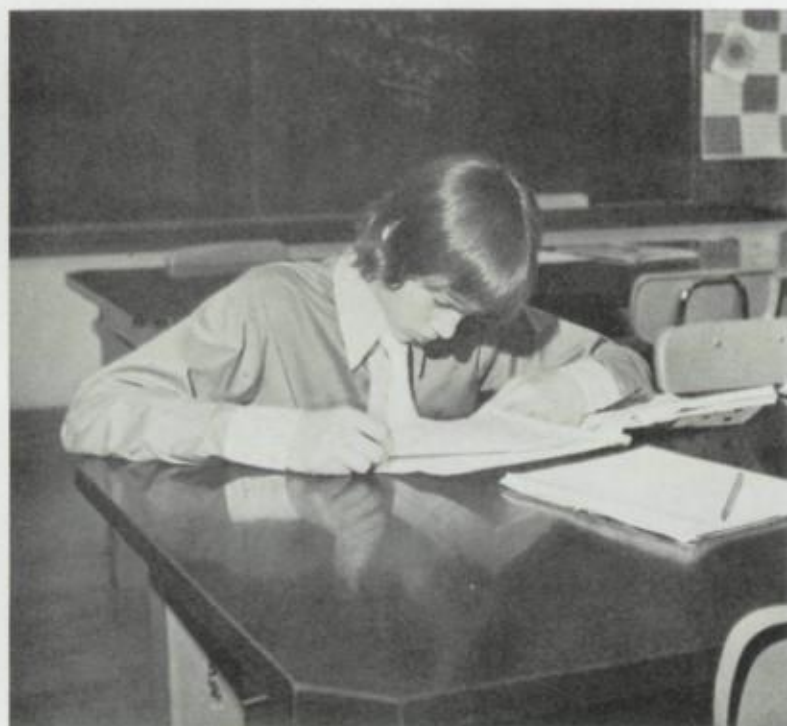

This year the school's ski instructional program was limited to beginners and freshmen. The new skiers headed for the slopes six times during the school weeks. Schweitzer Basin again cooperated with the school to make the program a successful and fun experience. Advanced skiers formed a Ski Club, which consisted of those not eligible for the ski program. Ski Club planned trips to other ski resorts, including a highly successful trip to Snowblaze.

The Lettermen's Club held their annual carnival November 2, to help support the athletic program. Each booth was run by members of Pep Club, Booster Club, and Lettermen's Club. Besides carnival booths, the students sold raffle tickets which helped raise the total profit of $802.84.

The Spartanettes performed marching drills for several football and basketball home games. Stacy Bretthauer was captain of the fourteen girls. The Spartanettes also performed for the basketball tournament and the Lilac Parade.

John Wuennecke, sports editor, worked on preparing the latest sports news.

Home economic's child development class to observe their physical, social, and emotional actions as well as creative ability. The local children came to school during a weeks period. The program changed the pace and added a little variety.

Spartanettes perform at District Basketball tourney

On Shhh Day during Homecoming week, Pauline Skudler boosted the most shhh badges. Girls couldn't talk to girls nor boys talk to boys with the punishment consisting of losing your badge. Pauline drew out the conversations of fellow students despite their attempt of silence.
